

TREES FOR JUSTICE

& the Legacy of Nettie J. Asberry

Saturday, September 24, 10:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Tacoma Community House, 1314 S L Street, Tacoma, WA 98405

Join us for a day of music, food, and learning about Tacoma's past, present, and future! The Tacoma City Association of Colored Women's Clubs, the Institute for Black Justice, and Tacoma Tree Foundation will share about connections of community, environment, and social justice in Tacoma. Activities will include a tree planting demonstration at the historic former home of Dr. Nettie J. Asberry, as well as a tree share where folks can take plants home to add some green to their neighborhoods. Also featuring Kareem Kandi World Orchestra and Tacoma Urban Performing Arts Center (T.U.P.A.C.)!

TREES FOR JUSTICE

& the Legacy of Nettie J. Asberry

SCHEDULE

10:30–11:15 Welcome and Presentations (inside Tacoma Community House)

- Wanda Thompson, Emcee
- Jason Scales
- Kiara Daniels
- Cynthia Tucker
- Carol Mitchell
- Lowell Wyse

11:15-11:45 Tree planting demonstration (@ Asberry House)

12:00–2:30 Tacoma Tree Foundation Tree share—free trees for all!

12:15–1:30 Lunch, with music by Kareem Kandi World Orchestra
(Inside TCH, with optional outdoor seating)

1:45–2:30 Closing Program (Inside TCH)

- Wanda Thompson, Emcee
- Susan Johnson — Nettie Asberry video
- TUPAC dance performance

