

Tacoma - Pierce County Black Collective 2021 Black History Month

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

Admit One: The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

A look at Art Imitating Life – presenting some of the pioneers or their works in the film industry

Beyond actors - Directors, Producers, Writers, Documentarians, Screenwriters, Cinematographers and as of last year, Studio Owners.

Across types of Media – A full spectrum of “Radio/Music, TV and Film”

The Ride - Weekly suggested preview & Prep to enrich the experience

Hattie McDaniel,
"Gone with the Wind"

Ira Aldridge,
"Othello" 1807-1839, Theater and activist

Denzel Washington,
"Malcom X"

Maya Angelou,
civil rights activist,
poet and award-
winning author, 'I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings'

Ruby Dee,
Ruby Dee, actress,
poet, playwright,
screenwriter,
journalist, and civil rights activist.

Gregory Hines, Actor,
Dance and Theater

Dorothy Dandridge,
"Carmen Jones", film and theatre actress, singer, and dancer

James Baldwin, "Go Tell it
on The Mountain",
novelist, playwright,
essayist, poet, and activist

Nicholas Brothers

Admit One: The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

Week 1;

Week 2:

Week 3:

Week 4:

(We encourage you to drop short comments and thought into “Chat”, and then save at the end of each weeks presentation)

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

The History and Achievement of Blacks in Cinema

