

Tacoma-Pierce County Black Collective Celebrates – 2016 Black History Month

“Inspirations, Yesterday and Today”

Storytelling that reflects experiences of Black Collective members. Presenters will share personal stories that depict life-changing events and individuals that have molded their lives. We celebrate Black History Month by recognizing how life principles, knowledge, wisdom and insight, and innovation nurtured by family, friends and faith have sustained us.

Organizing Committee: Lyle Quasim, Wayne Williams, Victoria Woodards

Schedule of Presenters Recap

1. Feb. 6, 2016 Merritt Long, “Zero To Sixty in a Matter Of Seconds”
Harold Moss, “My Emotions and Nerves on Steroids”
2. Feb. 13, 2016 Larry Norman, “Who and What Has Influenced My Life”
Lester Clarence Pogue Jr., “Father-Son Brother-Man Mother-Sister”
Dalton Gittens, “Notes From Trinidad”
3. Feb. 20, 2016 Gail Alexis Ray, “Lifetime Lessons Learned from Childhood”
Harold Moss, “My Emotions and Nerves on Steroids” (Rerecorded)
Lyle Quasim, “Ophelia”
4. Feb. 27, 2016 Aaron Pointer, “Truth is on Its Way”
David Boyd, “And oh yes, I felt Free”
Lisa Whitmore, “God gives us everything that pertains to life and Godliness”

A Special Thank You to Everyone making this a Special Celebration!