

Okay Charles,

Here's the challenge!!!!

Can you do a tribal melody???

Have you cleaned out enough of the garbage to hear the drums that are your heart?

Do you remember what they made you forget by filling your head with dreams of; electrical components, cool jackets, fancy extravagant cars, sexy nameless faceless women, gold, cash, the quick fix???

Or are you all pretend...plastic...ambitious...self centered?

Are you real?? Or shuck and jive?

Are you real, or just carrying on and telling yourself fairy tales??

Maybe this will be the topic of our next little ditty.
