RENO Night

Do you feel lucky? Well, do you? November 5th could be your lucky night, just in time for the holidays! Once again the Key Peninsula Civic Center is having its famous Reno Night as a Center fundraiser.

Of course, the regular features will be there; a no-host bar, Bingo in the Whitmore Room with the regular Bingo crew, Dice, Wheel of Fortune, and more Blackjack tables than ever before! Wow. This year's Reno Night gambling will be managed by Don Zimmerman, a man many of you will remember from Reno Night from years previous. He is certainly looking forward to rolling up his sleeves and getting right in there!

The Center has managed to con Mrs. Stephanie Zampini into cooking up her delicious treats in the kitchen. If you have ever eaten Stephanie's cooking, you already know that it is a delectable treat! Fortunately, she will have the luxury of using our new stove that was recently purchased through a grant from the Cheney Foundation. (Remember to take a look, it's a beauty!!)

If you look up the definition for

Annual 1994 Christmas Festival

Once again it's time for that holiday season everyone enjoys, CHRISTMAS. As part of these joyful holidays, the Key Peninsula Civic Center is hosting its annual Christmas Festival on November 26. It will be held in the Center Auditorium from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and you're invited!

Santa Claus has promised once again to take time away from his busy holiday schedule and drop by to give the Key Peninsula kids a chance to get their holiday Santa picture for the mantel. There will be plenty of treats to keep everyone happy too!

The kitchen elves will also be more than happy to serve you throughout the day. Take the opportunity to try one of the Civic Center's famous Burgers - it's a one of a kind treat! Santa says, "The best food in the world comes from the Civic Center kitchen!" And he should know... he wasn't always rosy cheeked and round like a bowl full of jell-o.

There will be a multitude of crafters, artisans, and vendors in attendance, all of whom are ready to provide you with that unique one of a kind present like everyone loves to receive. It's sure to put you on anyone's top ten list!

The Annual Christmas Festival is a community event that is enjoyed by the whole family. There is something for everyone here on November 26, so bring the kids, the grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins, and park it at the Center from 10:00 - 3:00. Santa will be waiting for you!

Wow. That sums up this year's Flavor of Fall Dinner & Auction. It was a spectacular display of creative vision and TALENT. It was a gorgeous fundraiser with young and old Civic Center benefactors coming together under one roof to help support OUR community center. What a wonderful reason to pull out the pocketbooks. Many thanks to those who put this all together especially Ann Larson, Shirley Olsen, and Britta Brones who painstakingly organized the Auction, Claudia & Dale Loy and their qualified staff of professional decorators. And I feel awful, because I don't have the space to list all those who helped to make this the phenomenal event this year's Flavor of Fall was! Superb!

Thank you to all those who unselfishly opened their pocket books and gave to the Center. I know that many of you do not want attention for your actions, but we know who you are, and thank you for your high bids, laughter, and good spirits. It's so nice to have strong supporters of continuation of the Civic Center. Thank you.

For those of you who haven't been by the Center in the last week... we have a shiny new commerial stove! This is due to the Cheney Grant that we received last June.

And for those of you who complained that the auditorium was TOO COLD last winter, new heaters are being installed as you read this. The downstairs system is already completed. The old heaters in the auditorium have been removed, and we are running right along. The men installing the system are from Western Furnance of Tacoma and they are a very efficient, and gentlemenly crew. I do fully expect to hear complaints that it's TOO HOT by the end of November. Now doesn't that sound nice?

Skate night is up and running. The children are up and down skating, and in between it all the new skate management team is smoothly sailing right along. Remember that parents are always welcome to come and skate or watch anytime. After all, we would love to have you there!

And for those of you who don't know ... we have a few classes that have some openings... Country Line Dancing with the reknown Cowboy Jack, a new Percussion Class, Karate, and some volunteer opportunities at Skate night and the upcoming Christmas Bazaar! If you need more information about any of these programs, give me a call at the Center office 884-3456.

And last but not least the Christmas Bazaar is almost here, and I'm hoarding my dollars just so I can go wild and BUY,BUY,BUY. Okay maybe I won't get exactly wild, but I plan to make a few one of a kind purchases for my family. (I like to stay on their good side). I hope to see everyone there especially since I licked 100 envelopes for vendors to insure we'd all have a great time.

Santa will be there, were you naughty or nice??

KPCCA Board Meeting Minutes - October 13, 1994

The meeting was called to order by Sylvia Haase, vice president, at 7:30 p.m. The minutes of the September meeting were approved as published. The treasurer's report was approved as presented.

TOPS: Barbara Lewis said light bulbs are needed for the VFW room. The group will be using the room from 6-9, an additional half hour from the original time.

BINGO: Bingo will be held in the Whitmore Room until the furnace is installed. This will keep players in a warm place for the time being.

FURNACE: The permits are all done, contracts are into HUD, and the target date for installation is October 24.

USO DANCE: The dance is scheduled for January 28, 1995. Auditions for entertainment will be held on October 29. There will be a display of cars from the 40's, and a good used car will be raffled off. A no host bar and dinner will be included with dance.

BUILDING & GROUNDS: The buildings have been rekeyed, and only a few keys will be given out to tighten security. Groups have been asked to identify which lockers they are using, as each group is to only have one in use.

SKATING: Stacy reported a new team is taking over skating. It will be for ages 14 and under, and kids will not be allowed to skate if parents do not bring them. Once kids go outside, they will not be allowed to return to skate. Fighting, weapons, or drugs will not be tolerated, and the child will not be allowed to return to skating for the rest of the year.

FLAVOR OF FALL: This event was a great success and realized a profit of approximately $12,000. Next year, it will be held on September 30, so start thinking about donations and groups who may be willing to donate.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY: It was msc we rent the library to the Historical Society for $200.00 per month plus utilities and a fundraiser for one year non-exclusive use. The society would like to be moved in by December.

STOVE: Bargreen's will be bringing the new kitchen stove and installing it. It was msc to instruct staff to put the Bingo equipment in the single-purpose locked room.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL: This is scheduled for November 26. Volunteers are needed for the kitchen, front desk, and set-up.

RENO NIGHT: Scheduled for November 5.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Sylvia Haase will chair this committee of five to nominate a secretary and treasurer. Other positions are also vacant on the Board and need to be filled. The meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Holiday Meals Task Force

This Thanksgiving will bring the Holiday Meals Task Force to the Key Peninsula Civic Center. The Holiday Meals Task force is a coalition of concerned citizens from Pierce County businesses, social services agencies, and dedicated seniors who have banded together to provide a meal service to seniors who are hungry, lonely, and isolated over the holidays.

In previous years the Tacoma Sheraton has prepared a special holiday meal for hundreds of seniors, in the Tacoma area, who otherwise would not have received a hot turkey dinner in a joyful, festive environment. Even those seniors who were home bound found themselves on the receiving end of a holiday meal due to these dedicated volunteers.

Now in 1994 it is possible for the Holiday Meals Task Force to make the Key Peninsula Civic Center a satellite site for the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. The Task Force will enable those seniors who are in need on the Key Peninsula to receive an old-fashioned turkey dinner in the company of friends at the Civic Center on Thanksgiving Day. Home bound seniors will

"Skating has its ups & its downs".

By Stacy A. Smith

Yes, once again Friday skate night is here, much to the delight of the Key Peninsula youth and the relief of their parents. But there are a few changes this time around, many of which you will be able to recognize immediately.

The first change is the introduction of a Skate Manager team. Instead of just one ambitious adult running the Friday night program, Lila Garrison and Rachel Miller have jumped on board as managers. They both have the enthusiasm, tenacity, and love of children that will make this program great!

The infamous Betty Kelly will once again be volunteering her time in the concessions to ensure the masses will never be hungry. As a dedicated volunteer, Betty has had the opportunity to get to know many of the youth of Friday Skate Night and has developed a keen sense of just what it is they want from the kitchen.

The second change is in the music. Instead of DJs controlling the volume and selections, it is up to the Management to pre-select and control. There will still be games, reverse skate, partners, and perhaps a few controlled races.

Once again the age is 8th grade and below with a valid school identification, and each youth must be brought inside and picked up by a parent. As they come in, they are reminded of the new rules, and asked to read them, all of which helps to ensure there won't be any misunderstandings.

One of the new rules is the "Second Warning rule." Once a youth has reached the second warning, they are suspended from Skate Night for a period of 6 months. This rule has been

" safe and

enacted to ensure that all Skate Night participants will have an enjoyable, safe time.

The Friday Skate Night is a very valuable program that provides youth with a "safe" and fun environment. It is terrific to have it back up and running with a qualified staff. So come on down next Friday and see just what skating is all about, and don't forget to bring the kids!

WE WANT YOU!!

by Margo MacDonald

The Key Peninsula Parents' Organization is looking for a few good men (& women); we are currently reorganizing the parent group at KPMS and are hoping to draw from our community at large. As the recent budget cuts have taken quite a toll at our school, the opportunities for volunteerism have expanded. We are interested in contacting volunteers who are available for clerical work, classroom work, business partnerships, booster, after-school activities and fundraisers. If you would like to participate in your middle school, please fill out a volunteer registration form which is available in the school office. We encourage ALL community members who are interested in volunteering whether they have students at KPMS or not.

"Boeing and Weyerhaeuser to match funds"

As we kick off to our fall projects, we are initiating a fundraiser. Our goal is to bolster the now empty VPO coffers so we can support programs as needed. In lieu of traditional fundraisers, we are simply appealing to the community for donations. Both Boeing and Weyerhaeuser offer matching funds to employees who make a contribution of this kind.

The Key Peninsula Volunteer Parents' Organization is hoping to make a valuable contribution to the school this year and your participation in these efforts can help us to be successful.

If you would like more information please call 884-4800.

Performing Arts Classes

The Evergreen Performers will be holding performing arts classes. They will meet on Sunday afternoons from 2 to 5 pm in Gig Harbor. The classes are for youth and adults, ages 9 and up, in acting, music, voice, and dance, ballet, jazz, modern and liturgical. Both the beginner and the experienced performer are welcome. Cost is $10 per week covering all three lessons, and family rates are available.

Evergreen Performers is a Christian drama ministry team designed for community service. In operation since 1984, they tour to churches and schools, specializing in family mainstage theatre productions. They are also holding auditions for adults and youth interested in being part of the touring company. For more information and directions, please contact Sharon Cantrell, Director, at 884-4628.

Just A Common Soldier

Submitted by VFW Post 4990 and its Ladies' Auxiliary

He was getting old and paunchy and his hair was falling fast
And he sat around the Legion telling stories of the past,
Of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he had done
In his exploits with his buddies; they were heroes, everyone.

And 'tho sometimes to his neighbors, his tales became a joke,
All his Legion buddies listened, for they knew whereof he spoke.
But we'll hear his tales no longer, for old Bill passed away
And the world's a little poorer, for a soldier died today.

He will not be mourned by many, just his children and his wife,
For he lived an ordinary quiet and uneventful life,
Held a job and raised a family, quietly going on his way;
And the world won't note his passing, 'tho a soldier died today.

When politicians leave this earth, their bodies lie in state,
While thousands note their passing and proclaim that they were great,
Papers tell their life stories from the time that they were young,
But the passing of a soldier goes unnoticed and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution to the welfare of our land
A guy who breaks his promises and cons his fellow man?
Or the ordinary fellow who in times of war and strife
Goes off to serve his Country and offers up his life?

A politician's stipend and the style in which he lives
Are sometimes disproportionate to the service that he gives,
While the ordinary soldier, who offered up his all,
Is paid off with a medal, and perhaps a pension small.

It's so easy to forget them, for it was so long ago
That the Old Bills of our country went to battle, but we know
It was not the politicians, with their compromise and ploys,
Who won for us the freedom that our Country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger with your enemies at hand,
Would you want a politician with his ever shifting stand?
Or would you prefer a soldier who has sworn to defend
His home, his kin, and Country, and would fight until the end?

He was just a common soldier and his ranks are growing thin
But his presence should remind us we may need his like again.
For when countries are in conflict, then we find the soldier's part
Is to clean up all the troubles that the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor while he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage at the ending of his days.
Perhaps just a simple headline in a paper that would say:

OUR COUNTRY IS IN MOURNING, FOR A SOLDIER DIED TODAY.

Women's Support Shelter

The YWCA of Tacoma/Pierce County Women's Support Shelter, the largest and oldest shelter for victims of domestic violence in the Northwest, announced a new support group for battered women in the Key Peninsula area.

The new support group will be located in Key Center and will serve women who are suffering abuse from a personal relationship. Topics explored by the group will include:

* the cycle of violence, physical, emotional and sexual abuse, self-esteem and making decisions

"The YWCA of Tacoma/Pierce County is pleased to have found a local sponsor for a battered women's support group in the Key Peninsula area. Because of the generosity of the Key Peninsula Angel Guild, women in this part of the county will have the opportunity to seek help in ending their abusive relationships."

"Many women in abusive relationships feel they are the only person/woman going through this situation and feel their future is hopeless. After attending a support group, women no longer feel alone and begin to feel that changes can make their lives better," said JoEllen Giles, Executive Director for the Tacoma/Pierce County YWCA.

The YWCA of Tacoma/Pierce County operates a 24-hour crisis line for victims of domestic violence. Any woman in crisis can call 1-800-562-6025 for support and emergency assistance.

These groups are free to battered women.

Special Olympics Programs: Programs for Special Olympics are really growing within the district. Activities are available throughout the year. Fall roller skating is underway Tuesdays from 7 pm to 8:30 pm at the Key Peninsula Civic Center. The cost is $2.00 for ages 6 - 21. Please mark Wednesday on your calendar and help ensure the return of library books. Thank you!

Parenting Plus: A free family program open to everyone and an opportunity for parents to meet with other families to learn more about common parenting concerns, listen to other viewpoints and enjoy an activity with their children. The evening starts with a free light meal for the family. Then parents meet together to learn and share information on various topics. While the parents are meeting, children are exploring planned activities in a safe environment, surrounded by caring adults. A family activity concludes the evening, and parents and their children leave on a fun note. The series is held on Thursday from 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm on the following dates: Nov. 3rd, 10th and 17th, Dec. 1st, 8th and 15th. Parenting Plus is held here at Vaughn Elementary. We need your help: Kids are bringing those drinks to school that come in plastic containers that look like a pop bottle. While these may be very tasty, the red liquid does stain anything it touches. We are asking that students not bring the red variety of this drink to school. It is causing stains that are permanent and won't come off. Thanks!!!

Tax Tips

by R. Marvin Keizur CTP

Divorce trap - a married couple sold their house for a large gain on which they deferred taxes by indicating that they intended to buy a replacement residence within two years. The next year they divorced. After that, the husband used his half of the sale proceeds to buy a replacement residence within the two-year limit, but the wife did not. Tax Court: The husband had deferred tax on his half of the gain from the house sale, while the wife now owed tax on her half. However, because the initial tax return filed for the year in which the house was sold had been a joint return, the husband was liable for the tax now owed by his former wife, and the IRS could collect it from him. (Note: The past can sneak up and bite you if you are not careful.)

Now is not too early to be getting your information together for your 1994 income tax return - remember that a cancelled check is no longer proof of a charitable contribution - get a receipt from the charity. You can sell securities that have gone down in value to take a loss and then after 31 days buy them back to retain your previous investment position. If you are in business, now is the time to be making equipment purchases, especially if you have had a very good profitable year - you can deduct up to $17,500 of equipment purchases for 1994.

Now is also a good time to choose your tax preparer - also remember the less expensive one could cost you more in the long run because they have not delivered the best service. You cannot pay too little and expect to get much, sometimes by paying too little we don't get what we expected. Quality is worth paying for!!

TO YOUR HEALTH

by William F. Roes, MD

It seems that despite our advances in modern medicine, some bacterial illnesses are destined to remain a threat to the human condition. With the recent rise of Tuberculosis and Syphilis, we are seeing a resurgence of germs developing resistance to our antibiotics, but in India last month doctors faced an even older scourge, the Black Death.

Black Death was the term used to describe the plague as it ravaged medieval Europe. It's caused by a bacteria, Yersinia Pestis, which causes two types of illness. The former, called Bubonic Plague, is spread by infected fleas from rodents. This phase of the infection causes fever, headaches, and painful swelling of lymph glands, and occurs 1 to 7 days after exposure. This type is relatively common, especially among people exposed to rodent fleas, and yearly isolated cases are reported from Arizona and the southwest. The Pierce County Health Department used to test fleas from rats down in the tideflats, and their last report of fleas with Yersinia Pestis was in 1946. The much more devastating and communicable form is Pulmonic Plague. In India last month, hundreds of cases and hundreds of deaths were reported from rural regions as well as Bombay, Calcutta, and Delhi. Pulmonic Plague occurs when the germ travels from the lymph glands to the lungs, and is coughed out in an aerosolized form. This spreads the germ quickly, especially in areas where there is overcrowding and poor hygiene. The mortality rate for untreated Pulmonic Plague is 60 - 100%, but it is easily prevented and treated with aggressive modern antibiotics. While we have our problems with access to health care, they obviously pale in comparison to India. The cost of the antibiotics to prevent the spread is literally only pennies a day, but they do not have the system to dispense it.

A big thank you to all who participated in the recent KPHC's Health Fair. If you didn't get your flu shot, they are still available through our office at the Key Medical Center for the month of November. It may not prevent the plague, but it will save you from the Shandong Flu.

Goin' Out

by Janice McMillan

Kabuki, a Japanese restaurant located in Tacoma on south 38th street next door to the Best Company, is a perfect place to eat if you or one of your guests is unsure about Japanese food. Some of my friends shudder at the mention of raw fish, seaweed, or what they feel are other strange ingredients. Not to worry at the Kabuki. They have something to please almost anyone, including rabid Japanese cuisine fans.

I enjoyed an excellent lunch of thinly sliced bite-sized pieces of New York steak served with a slightly sweetened sauce, a clear miso soup with mushrooms, a beautifully arranged salad of many colored lettuces and a shrimp and vegetable tempura with a dipping sauce.

The teriyaki sauce on the steak was the best I have ever tasted. All the flavors were very subtle and blended together in a harmonious whole. I managed to eat every single drop. Tempura is simply deep fried items. The difference is the feathery light coating. And Kabuki has the perfect touch with tempura. The large shrimp was perfectly fresh and perfectly cooked. There were also several pieces of tempura-cooked vegetables including carrot, mushroom, sweet potato (surprisingly good), and onion. My lunch cost $7.95 and included steamed rice and tea. It was a very satisfying meal ... carefully cooked and presented on the plate with the eye of an artist.

My dear companion had Tonkatsu, a breaded, deep fried pork loin served with a special sauce. It was presented in

Using Online Services - Netiquette

by Carolyn Caine, Computer Consultant

Since childhood you have probably learned about etiquette. As a result you learn how to behave in various situations so you would fit in and not make a fool of yourself. Well, if you are going to sit down at your computer and enter the information highway, you better know something about netiquette. Netiquette is the online version of etiquette. It is very important if you are to enjoy your time online.

Online services such as Prodigy, America Online, Delphi, Genie, Compuserve and the Internet vary a great deal in terms of what is expected on a bulletin board. There are some general rules that apply to most, but not to all. The Internet is an entity all to itself. It is not monitored by any one and no one owns it. However, the boards or newsgroups may be monitored or not and someone owns each of these groups as they allow the computer space for the interaction to take place.

First lets talk about bulletin boards also called newsgroups on the Internet. Bulletin boards are the main place a person can interact with groups of other people with common interest. You will most likely find a bulletin board on these services that matches every major interest you have. The Internet has over 6000 newsgroups and the number is increasing daily. Prodigy has in excess of 50 boards with approximately 1000 topics. Other services have varying numbers of boards all on just about every subject you can imagine. Each service sets up boards differently and it is important to understand how they are setup and how they expect you to interact with the board.

When you first log into a group on any service, it is best to spend a little time reading notes and observing how others interact. If you do this before you send a note you will probably see how to fit into the environment you are entering. Different boards tolerate beginner questions better than others. On the Internet there are specific places to go to ask for information. Most general repetitive information is supplied through files called FAQs, which stands for "Frequently Asked Questions." The Internet itself and virtually every board or service on the Internet has several FAQs to help you get started. In addition to hanging out until you see how the board participants interact with each other, these files are essential to making you a good board citizen.

Most groups like their users to stick to the topics of that particular board. However, on some services people get to know each other and then converse more casually. This is really not the proper place for this but since many services charge for E-mail the board gets uses as a "free" way to send mail. Remember, however, that the others may be offended by this and everything you write goes out to everyone on the board. Not only that, anyone can take a copy of your note and ship it to anyone or any other board. So be very sure that what you write on a public board is truly for public consumption. Now that all the major services are connected to each other through the Internet, it is literally possible for your note to reach several million people. It is, by the way, improper to post someone elses note to a bulletin board without their permission.

Now this seems like an opportunity. Perhaps you could advertise something online. Well, yes and no. The Internet is very hard core about advertising. Most boards will route you out fast if you try to advertise on their time. Most commercial services will allow you to advertise but only if you pay them and it gets put in the proper place. Prodigy runs an ad across the bottom portion of every screen. However, these are all paid ads and I would bet they are not cheap. Most services including the Internet do have places you can advertise, but be very sure that is where you do it. Improper advertising will probably get you nasty replies and I mean really nasty replies faster than almost anything else you can do.

Most of the commercial services like Prodigy, America Online, etc. are monitored by the company that owns them. They try to control vulgarity and vicious attacks. However, many of the boards on the Internet are free for alls. They are controlled only by the people who log on and interact. They will censor the users as they see fit and there is usually no one to kick someone off who is inappropriate. Although if someone is showing a pattern of being really out of control, they can be reported to the institution that provides their access. Since the majority of connections are provided through employers, most employers would prefer their employees were using it for work not for "flaming" others.

Flaming - the word used to describe an out of control attack on another user of an online service. Some of these can be very nasty and very upsetting to see. Some people feel that because they don't have to look at you and they don't have to hear you, they can say anything they want. They frequently say things that no one would ever say to your face. This usually is the result of something you said that they didn't like. However, there are some real fruitcakes on line who just launch an attack for no apparent reason. The vest way to deal with these people is to ignore them. If you are on a commercial service you might also report them to the service.

One last caution, there are boards out there for EVERY interest. If you have children using the online services, especially the Internet, you may want to spend some time getting familiar with which boards they use and with whom they talk. There are many boards with sexual themes some with sick sexual themes and there are some sick people out there. Just like in the "real" world

Special Events for Veterans Day

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and the Ladies Auxiliary of Key Peninsula, Post 4990, are preparing some very special events for Veterans Day this year. In addition to the annual "Aisle of Honor" at the Vaughn Cemetery, from 6 am to 5 pm, a new Community Memorial Flagpole is being erected at Key Center.

The first community flag raising and dedication ceremony will be held at 11 am on Veterans Day, November 11, 1994. The Assistant Director of Veterans Affairs, Field Service Office, John Lee, will be the guest speaker. Cecil Young, for State and Post Commander, is Master of Ceremonies, and Peninsula High School has agreed to provide musical entertainment with its "Razza-Tazz" chorus.

A POW Flag, donated by Fred Sergeant, will be flown with the US Flag on the new pole in the "Corral" area of Key Center. The members of Post 4990 and its' Auxiliary are grateful to owner Ernest Helling who has graciously donated the use of a portion of that property for the MEMORIAL flagpole and appurtenant light fixture.

Construction of the pole and plaque is being done by Jerry Nelson owner of Funco of Washington, Inc., and his coordinator Renee' Watters.

Everyone is invited and refreshments will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young are the chairpersons of this function. For further information call 884-4551.

Some other VFW activities coming up in November are; a "Lite-A-Tike", "Lite-A-Bike" and child identification programs. Also the Voice of Democracy Essay contest is in full swing. Entries are due in by November 15. For information on the Voice of Democracy Contest call Joe Barrows, 884-5585.

Angels News

The Angels have been very busy this month spreading gifts around our community: twenty-seven bears ambled off to join the State Patrol Comfort Program, one of their two life-lines are presently in use, and they are paying rent for office space to be used by the Y.M.C.A. Battered Women's Support Group.

With everything they are doing, it's suprising they had time to make a visit to Camp Easter Seals where they were treated to a heart-warming tour and wonderful luncheon.

Due to lack of space the Angels regret that they cannot accept donations of large furniture or appliances. These items create a costly trip to dispose of. Thank You! Angel meetings are now on the fourth Monday of each month, at 10 am, in the Brones Room of the Key Peninsula Library.

As a special note - the Angels wish blessings and extra pumpkin pie to Angels Bob, Richard and Gerald.

there are also con artists trying to find a way to take advantage and make a buck. Both you and your children should be aware of this and should take normal precautions. Don't put your home address or phone number on a public board. Make sure you know to whom you are talking before giving out this information and then only in private E-mail. Don't ever give your credit card number online except to order something very specific from a company you know is trustworthy.

With all these warnings and cautions the information highway may seem like an unfriendly, potentially dangerous place to be. So is the day to day world if you don't follow the rules. Take time to become familiar with what is expected in the particular environment you are in. Take the normal precautions you would with the phone or face to face contact and be polite. Then you will find it an exciting rewarding place to be. A place where you can make new friends, explore your interests with others and learn lots of new things. I hope that you all have the opportunity to explore the new frontier that has opened up for all of us. Just take the time to learn the rules and you will never need to be alone or bored again.

Next month we will talk about buying a new computer and getting it setup to do all the marvelous things you hear about. If you have questions, send them to me in care of the Key Peninsula News.

 LETTERS

To the Key Peninsula Civic Center Association,

Congratulations and thank you for another enjoyable "Flavor of Fall" evening. There was a home grown atmosphere with professional attractions.

Friends exchanging greetings and expressing concern and love for each other emphasized our "ALOHA" community spirit.

Many favorable comments were heard. The negatives were negative, which means there were none. If there are, it can only come from those who couldn't be or weren't there.

The revenue report profiles the success of the evening. To all who had a hand in the event, too numerous to mention, Congratulations.

It's my inability to put in to words my enjoyment, so I'll simply say, "thank you".

JENELL THOMPSON VAUGHN ELEM. 5th GRADE

Fire Prevention Week

At Vaughn Elementary

A routine fire drill at the Vaughn Elementary School was followed by an influx of Key Peninsula firefighters aboard fire engines and other equipment flashing lights, blazing alert sounds, and serving escort to Jenell Thompson, winner of the Fire Department's poster contest, "change your smoke alarm batteries now."

October 10th marked the beginning of Fire Prevention week, and also a very exciting week for all the students of Vaughn Elementary. Weeks before students had been busy creating and drawing posters to enter this year's contest. Each class selected a winning poster to be entered into the over-all school contest.

Each of the winner students were picked up at their homes bright and early in the morning and given an escort ride to school in one of the fire trucks during the week. What a sight to see the wide eyes and smiling faces of each of the winners as they jumped off the trucks to start their day. Lt. Tom Lique of the Key Peninsula Fire Department lead the team of firefighters that pulled off this endeavor each day, and according to Tom, every day went off without a hitch!

Winners of the daily rides were: Monday, Ryan Amrine and Michael Kelley; Tuesday, Amy Livinggood-Nelsen and Shannon Kiser; Wednesday, Emily Spunagle, Jeff Laurent, Michelle Longstreet, and Amy Cole; Thursday, Jenell Thompson.

MY ISSUES

JUVENILE CRIME

"Commissioner Huntington and I share the same concerns on crime" Pierce County Prosecutor, John Ladenburg.
 Mary Ann Huntington believes: *We must provide law enforcement with the tools it needs to protect law abiding citizens.
 *We need a balance between parents rights and children's rights.
 *And yes, I definitely support the death penalty.

CREATING JOBS

"Commissioner Huntington is the only candidate for this position with a track record of creating jobs. I need Mary Ann's help in the legislature."

Congressman Norm Dicks.

CUTTING TAXES

Since taking office, 5 years ago, Port Commissioner Mary Ann Huntington has worked hard to reduce Port taxes. Since 1991 levy rates have been reduced more than 12%.
