NEWS FROM WAUNA TO LONGBRANCH

Fisheries Department Aims Blow At Salmon Production In South Sound

Further bad news for South Sound Fishermen was revealed recently when the Washington Fisheries Department quietly proposed a 1983-85 budget that would almost halve salmon production for that period.

The overall effect of the new budget, if allowed to stand, would reportedly drop hatchery salmon production from 3.9 million pounds last year down to two million pounds, which is even below a previously proposed 2.6 million pounds.

One of the severe blows to hit the local area would be the possible closure of the Fox Island rearing pens that annually produce thousand of chinook and coho salmon for both sport and commercial fisherman. The Department reportedly contends that it cannot afford the $72,000 that the program costs, although fishermen believe that the salmon so raised contribute about $780,000 to the Washington economy.

This move by the Department would leave the Squaxin Island net pens, operated by that Indian tribe, as the only major South Sound source of hatchery-reared salmon.

Other casualties of the budget proposal would include egg-box programs, tagging, management and enhancement of bottom fish, bait fish, and tuna and Puget Sound recreational sampling.

Persons interested in the impact of the proposed budget on both the commercial and sport fishery should contact the Fisheries department.

In a related environmental development the "Residents and Friends of Bay Lake" group has filed a lawsuit in Pierce County Superior Court, asking that the state game department be prohibited from spraying chemicals in Bay Lake to kill fish.

DONORS ISSUE CHALLENGE TO COMMUNITY

Special to the NEWSLETTER by Hugh McMillan

An estimated 2,500 to 3,000 viewers enjoyed the fireworks display on Von Geldern's Cove on the fourth of July 1982. The display, as described in articles appearing in the Newsletter edition of July 1982, was made possible by a $2,000 grant from an anonymous donor to the Key Peninsula Volunteer Firefighters' Association. Members of the Association voluntarily took extensive training to become pyrotechnicians as required by law in order to present the display. Other Association members were on hand to display firefighting and emergency medical equipment to the public throughout the day and evening.

The presentations were well received by everyone who had the opportunity to see them and comments ran from, "Fantastic", to "Really super", to "The best fireworks show I've ever seen." Some viewers have written of called the Volunteers' Association to say that they were so impressed with the show that, were the firefighters able to put on a show on 1983's 4th of July, they would be happy to contribute to make the show possible. One viewer noted that, "Even though we had a large crowd, everyone was well behaved; we all had fun. I wish we could have this show again next year."

We can. But it will depend on our community's involvement and support to ensure that we can.

District 16 Responds

By Hugh McMillan, Commissioner

Fire District #16 provided very good basic life support service to the citizens of the Key Peninsula, according to Fire Chiefs Med Schwenka and Horace Kanno. In 1981, the average response time for District 16 was 6.1 minutes. The national average for volunteer fire departments was 10 minutes. District 16 covers 65 square miles and in 1981 made 221 patient transports from the Peninsula to hospitals in Tacoma, Bremerton, and Fort Lewis. These included heart attacks, strokes, all sorts of injuries and other medical problems.

A mini-survey done on October 12, 1982, found that six out of six recently transported cardiac patient were doing fine and were well pleased with the service they received from the Fire Department. Recently Tacoma News Tribune and Peninsula Gateway articles critical of Emergency Care Systems

As previously reported, the donor whose $2,000 gift made possible this years exciting show also granted the Fire District the $3,000 seed money which made possible the purchase of the $6,700 breathing-apparatus-compressor now installed in the District's Headquarters' fire station. This vital piece of equipment has greatly enhanced the capability of our firefighters to successfully suppress fires and protect lives and property.

Following this years' show, the anonymous donors expressed gratitude to the firefighters who worked so hard to ensure its success. They were pleased that so many of our community were able to enjoy the colorful display and were happy to learn that the new compressor, the acquisition of which they made possible, has had so profound an effect on the upgrading of the District's firefighting and life-saving capabilities.

The donors were impressed that several citizens had volunteered to contribute funds in support of a repeat performance of the fireworks display for the

MINUTES OF THE KPCC BOARD MEETING

Meeting of October 14, 1982

The meeting was called to order by president Tom VanSlyke at 7:35 PM. The treasurer's report was accepted and the minutes of the September meeting were approved as read.

The Perrys reported the musical production scheduled for October 22, is going to be a fantastic show. All members were urged to sell tickets in advance, but they will be for sale at the door. Tickets will also be on sale at Walt's on Saturday, October 16. Sally Cornman and Maureen Taylor will be in charge of the kitchen for this event, and will sell coffee and soft drinks.

Speak Your Mind

TO THE EDITOR:

It is hard to believe that the people on Key Peninsula know what they want. We have owned property on Herron Island for a good many years. I am a pharmacist. From the beginning almost everyone out here has said, "Why don't you put a drug store in Key Center?", "A drug store would be such a blessing to the people out in this area", "We need a drug store out in this area so badly", etc., etc.

It will be a long, cold day before we have the potential volume of customers for a large chain to invest the money necessary to put in a drug store. That left only the possibility of someone taking the risk and putting in a small neighborhood type of store. Most of the people I have talked to were afraid to take the chance or were financially unable. Normally it takes 2 or 3 years in a business before you build a volume to the point where you are making money. Think about it. You not only have to have the cash to equip and stock the store (wholesalers want their money now), but you must have enough reserve capital to sustain the store, your family, and your home for that period. That represents a lot of money. Jim McMahon took that risk and opened the Key Center Drug.

Probable more than half of the people on the Peninsula have never been in the Key Center Drug. There are a lot of reasons for this. "Is there a drug store at Key Center?" "I didn't know that- how nice!" "I don't stop because he probably won't have what I want anyway;" "He'll possibly charge me a little more for my prescription." "When I shop, I don't want to have to stop the car twice."

A small essay could be written about each of these good reasons- however, just a word. Perhaps the prices are a little higher in a small town. Until business increases so that he can buy his stock in 1,000 instead of 100's it will remain that way.

Each of the large chain stores have taken a few of the most popular prescription items, and a few maintenance medications and put the price almost down to their cost - as advertising. But, take a prescription in for a seldom used medication; then - if they stock it at all - the profit margin gets balanced out. Go in and check prices with Jim. He'll do the best possible - but if you're unhappy with the price - don't buy it. He'll understand. But give him a chance. I really don't enjoy financing the oil companies by driving to Tacoma for drug needs at today's gas prices. Do you? One big difference you will enjoy - "Good morning, Mrs. Jones, can I be of help to you?" or do you prefer the friendly approach that we get so often "Take a number, we'll wait on you when your turn come?" (unless it is time for his coffee break.)

It all boils down to this - even though a lot more could be said. Key Center and the Peninsula now have what they have evidently wanted for a long time - a drug store. Unless some support is given to Jim's efforts to provide these facilities - one day soon you'll wake up in the morning and find you have no drug store. Believe me, it will be a long, long time before anyone else will stick their neck out to do it again. It's all up to you.

This is only a letter of support from me - not a paid advertisement.

DONORS CHALLENGE

4th of July in 1983. They feel that this demonstrates so well the community spirit of Key Peninsula's fiercely independent citizens and that our celebration of the Nation's birth in 1983 can be a genuine community effort.

To support this community endeavor, the donors have generously volunteered to grant to the Volunteer Firefighters' Association $2,500. Of this sum, $1,500 is to be ear-marked for the fireworks display on the 4th of July 1983. Provided that the Key Peninsula community shows its support for the program by contributing an additional $1,000 to cover costs involved. The remaining $1,000 of the $2,500 grant is designated to be used for the purchase of apparatus needed to enhance the firefighting or emergency service of the Key Peninsula Fire Department provided that our community displays support of the plan by contributing an additional $500.

In the event we of Key Peninsula do not wish to make this generous proposal a genuine community effort through our own contributions and support, the donor will feel justified in transferring the $2,500 to one of many other charitable organizations to which they lend support.

Let's prove to our anonymous friends that we greatly appreciate their generosity and that we will make this an all-Key Peninsula community endeavor. Surely our community of more than 4,000 registered voters could afford at least one dollar to support this "Fantastic" show. Any amount will help to make possible another colorful, exciting, and SAFE 4th of July celebration.

To get the ball rolling, on the 21st of September the Key Peninsula Volunteer Firefighters' Association voted unanimously to give full support to efforts to collect the funds to come the community to meet the challenge our anonymous donors have given us. Please make your contribution to the:

Key Peninsula Firefighters Assoc.
8911 Key Peninsula Hwy. KPN
Lakebay, Wash. 98349

The earlier we are able to accumulate the community's $1,000 toward the fireworks show and the $500 for purchase of apparatus, the sooner we will be able to place an order for the fireworks to ensure delivery on time. As funds are received, they will be placed in an interest bearing bank account to help fatten the pot. Any amount no matter how small or large, will be welcomed and help to give us an even more spectacular 4th of July in 1983.

Please indicate in writing how much of your contribution is to be designated for fireworks and how much for apparatus. All contributions are tax deductible as gifts to a non-profit charitable organization. Do not make out checks to the Fire Department or to the Fire District as such funds must legally be used for other fire-fighting and medical aid related purposes. If you prefer, donations in cash can be made at the Key Center Headquarters' Fire Station; a receipt should be obtained at that time.

Karate Tournament Winners

September 18th marked the first Karate tournament held at the Key Peninsula Civic Center. The "All Isshinryu Kata Tournament" featured competitors from seven different Isshinryu Dojos (schools) in the Northwest area. Men, women, boys and girls competed for the 1st and 2nd place pendants.

"Seven divisions were represented by these students," said Todd Overby, the instructor at the Civic Center and host of the tournament, "and our school placed in three of them. I'd love to take credit for that but the fact is that I have some dedicated students here that work hard on perfecting their techniques."

Daniel Orme took 1st place in Junior Colored Belt Division, Shawn Yanity took 1st in Men's Yellow and Purple Belt Division, and John Heidal won 2nd place in the Men's Blue Belt Division.

"This was just the 1st tournament," said Todd, "There will be others; what makes me proud is that we had three students place out of only six entries from this school!"

The Karate classes meet on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. and on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. Beginning instruction is available to anyone with the desire to learn a martial art.

"Show me someone humble enough to say: 'I have a lot to learn', yet proud enough to say: 'I won't give up', and I'll show you a teachable student," said Todd.

The classes are ongoing: it takes on the average about five years to attain a 1st degree black belt. The sense of well-being and confidence comes well before that, according to those familiar with the art.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE NEWSLETTER

In the months to come, we hope to add a new dimension to the Newsletter by telling you about some of the things, and above all, the people who make this area unique. We'll need your help.

In the spring we plan to expand our view on gardening, augmenting Valda Young's sage advice with tips from other gardeners. Do you have a secret for growing the biggest tomatoes, the earliest corn, the most glorious flowers? Will you share it with us? Do you sell plants, seeds or tools, offer gardening or landscaping services? Let us know about it.

When this area was settled, people earned their living here. Although the majority of our wage-earners now travel to jobs outside the community, there are some who still make all or part of their income here on the Key Peninsula. Some are obvious: the businesses strung along the highway and advertised in our Newsletter, but there are those who depend on word-of-mouth or who have an established market for their services. We'd like to hear about them.

Are there still full-time working farms on the Key Peninsula, or those that are working toward that goal? Are there artisans, inventors, designers at work here? How many products are brought to our homes by party plans or door-to-door selling? There are people who build, repair or demolish; baby sitters, house sitters and pet sitters. There are hundreds of ways to earn a living or a supplemental income here and we'd like to tell you about some of them.

We'd like to tell you, too, about some of the unusual homes here. One of the things that attracted many of us to the Key Peninsula is that there are no huge developments with rows of look-alike houses; our homes are as varied as our people. Do you have, or are you building, an unusual house? Have you scavenged or salvaged materials, converted a barn, built something as traditional as a log or pole structure or as "new" as a geodesic or earth-sheltered home? Have you found a way to use sun, water or wind power?

This area is rich in the most important resource: people. With your help, the Newsletter will tell you more about living on the Key Peninsula. If you can answer any of our questions please contact us at the Newsletter or "any staff member".

Mrs. James R. (Dorothy) McGowan was hostess to a reception honoring the marriage of her son Scott James McGowan to the former Xenia Maureen Cox which took place on August 21, 1982, at Benson North Carolina. There were seventy-five guests to meet the new bride.

Scott is employed as an engineering assistant at Keyport, WA. They are making their new home in Winslow.

Next meeting - Lake of the Woods board of directors - election of officers - McGowan's residence #260 - all interested property owners are invited - coffee and pumpkin pie!

Seattle Times Quits Peninsula

The publishers of the Seattle Times have reportedly decided to discontinue route circulation on Sunday in the Peninsula area. The decision, according to officials, is due to small circulation numbers and hard economic times. The closest issues of the Times available to Peninsula residents are either in Tacoma or in Port Orchard. The Times has reportedly offered mail subscriptions of the Sunday paper to Peninsula residents.

Some sources have indicated that if the pending merger of the Times and the Seattle P-I goes through that Peninsula area residents will again be able to receive Sunday delivery of the paper.

contained statistics based on a six month study of Pierce County and Tacoma which was unfavorable compared to a two year study did not cover Key Peninsula.

The TNT article declared that Tacoma had 22 trauma cases in six months and that all died. Chief Kanno stated that there might be as many as 22 trauma cases in Pierce County on one bad week-end, let alone in six months, and that it certainly was not a sufficient number of cases on which to base statistics. He pointed out that as "first providers" of basic life support, the Fire Department could be the "loser" in the statistical area if the person died on the way to the hospital, or even if the patient died in the hospital after a period of time.

Both chiefs feel the Fire Department gives excellent basic life support care and pointed out that District 16 has a coordinated program under which mutual aid-contracts with Mason County Fire District #5 and Gig Harbor based Peninsula Ambulance Service provide immediate paramedic response for advanced life support when required to supplement our basic life support. The Chiefs mentioned that the paid and volunteer fire fighters are constantly training under the Washington State Training Program, Commission for Vocational Education. The 23 Emergency Medical Technicians in our Fire Department must pass strict State tests and meet requirements for on-going education in the field and must be re-certified every two years. It is interesting to note that the inflammatory articles come out just before the 1983 re-funding of the EMS Medical Control Project, headed by David Vance. The chiefs do feel that implementation of the E-911 emergency telephone number will help in directing proper aid in an emergency. Both Chief Schwenka and Chief Kanno agree that there would be some benefits in a county-wide organization to coordinate training, procedures, and certification.

CLOSED (MOSTLY) FOR THE SEASON.... Summer-popular Penrose Park will be closed on weekdays from now until April 1st, 1983. Low usage of the park during the cold months of winter and budget difficulties are blamed for making the change necessary. On weekends, the park will have 21 campsites open from noon on Friday until 5 PM on Sunday, and the regular $5.50 camping fee will be charged. Penrose is one of 30 Washington State Parks to operate on reduced hours during this winter, while nearby Kopachuck State Park will remain open on a full-time basis.

This year at Key Peninsula Middle School is off to a good start. Student enrollment has increased to 439 and a portable building with two additional classrooms has been added.

Thirteen new teachers have joined the staff replacing those who left. They include Mrs. Prince - P.E., Mr. Conti - sixth grade block and math, Mrs. Gill - Home Arts, Mrs. Griffin - Counselor and Language Arts, Mrs. Jonasson - sixth grade block, Mr. Neel - Chorus, Mr. Peterson - P.E., Mrs. Pruitt - Hearing Impaired, Ms. Sanom - Special Ed., Mr. Tremblay - Science, Mrs. Tweten - Science, and Mr. Karris - Band.

The sports program at K.P.M.S. was cancelled this year due to lack of funding. It is hoped that funding for basketball will be available.

A.S.B. cards are available at the Student Store at a cost of $5. The bearer of this card is entitled to reduced or free admission to various events. School lunches are still only $1 this year. A new salad bar is featured as an alternate to the regular hot lunch. For those students who bring their lunch, milk is available for 20¢.

The magazine drive ended last week and through the efforts of our great salespeople, the Student Council is $2,500 richer. Special-interest activity classes that will be offered to students after school are in the making....stay tuned for details in next month's issue.

New Member of Peninsula School Board

Her appointment, from a field of six applicants, fills the position vacated upon the September resignation of George Lusk.

The Reynolds have lived in the Peninsula School District for 17 years and have two daughters in local schools.

Restaurant Guide

By Janice McMillan

(Editors Note: For our newer residents, and for others interested in trying someplace new for dinner, the Newsletter is planning a series on eating out at various restaurants within easy driving range. We will share what we find, and hope that our visits help point you toward a pleasant time Eating Out.)

The Huckleberry Inn - Their philosophy is "the customer is always right" and your kids are welcomed with special menus and prices. It is a place you can go in your painty jeans or a business suit from town and not feel uncomfortable. The bar is very lively and you can order dinner there and enjoy the live music on week-end nights. The food is not fancy, according to the new owner John Farrell: "We're a country cafe". So, expect seafood and beef. The French fries and prime rib (a special on week-end nights) are famous in this area. If you check the specials, you will save quite a bit on an evening out. Can you believe all-you-can-eat spaghetti dinner for $3.95 on Tuesday night? This is no a place for the dieter, the meals are substantial, stick-to-the-ribs type, and when you pay your bill you feel that you got your money's worth. The menu is standard fare and the only thing I found unusual was the fact that the Huckleberry Inn sautes their scallops rather than deep-fries them. The salad bar has the usual home-made type salads and an excellent cucumber and onion in sour cream dressing. I think the Huckleberry Inn should do a little better on buying, as they are so popular they tend to run out of things later in the evening. It is irritating to want a baked potato and be confronted with mashed. My friend reported the fried oysters were excellent, others at our table enjoyed the prime rib special, with prawns for 50 cents extra, and my New York steak was very nice. Our bill, with before-dinner drinks was about $10.00 less for four people, than we would have paid at a similar place in town. The Huckleberry Inn is a down-home type of place but it has class too. If you go there, you are always sure to meet someone you know.

Cook's Corner

Pumpkin Cheesecake is an elegant dessert and a very nice change from the usual Thanksgiving pumpkin pie:

Crust: 1 1/4 c. graham cracker crumbs
6 Tbsp. melted butter
1 tsp. cinnamon
2 Tbsp. brown sugar

Directions: Grease a 9" spring-form pan. Combine all the crust ingredients and pat into bottom of pan.

Filling: 2 lbs. softened cream cheese
1 1/2 c. sugar
5 eggs
1/4 c. flour
16 ozs. cooked pumpkin
2 tsp. pumpkin pie spice
2 Tbsp. rum or 2 tsp. extract

Directions: Cream cheese until fluffy, gradually add sugar. Add eggs one at a time, beating after each addition. Beat in flour mixed with spice. Stir in pumpkin and rum. Pour into crust and bake 1 hour and 45 min. at 350° or until center is firm. Cool and cover top with sweetened whipped cream. Serves 8-10.

DAIRYMEN AND OTHER FARMERS TO LEARN ABOUT COMPUTERS

Dairymen and other agricultural producers are invited to attend a special workshop about "On Farm Computers" at the Executive Inn in Pife on November 3. The special program, which begins at 10:30 a.m. and runs till 3:00 p.m. will discuss and demonstrate computers and computer programs which are available for on-farm use. According to Woody Bernard, Area Extension agent, this program will be conducted by Washington State University's Cooperative Extension and will offer local dairymen and farmers a chance to learn what to look for in the selection of a computer.

In addition, the workshop will take a look at the office of the future. What will be available, and what might expect in the Computer Age.

Pre-registration of $8.00 is encouraged to insure lunch and room space. Coffee and rolls will be provided by Production Credit Association. Registration slips are available from the King or Pierce County Extension Offices.

ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR

The Civic Center will hold its 12th Annual Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, December 4, from 10 AM to 4 PM. The fair has become increasingly popular over the years and there are many handmade articles to be purchased for gifts and there will also be tables of baked goods and sweets and unusual items which are difficult to find at other times. Buyers come from a large area to find special gifts. Tables may be reserved by calling Marian Wagner at 884-3606.

UPPER SOUND GRANGE TO MEET

The Upper Sound Grange has dropped its Annual Booster Night meeting, and is substituting a "Harvest Dinner", to be held in the Gold Room of the Civic Center at 7PM, on Friday, November 5th.

All Grangers, their families, and friends are invited to attend this event. This year, the third Annual Neighborhood Service Award will be presented to Dale and Claudia Loy for their outstanding work at the Civic Center, and in the neighborhood. The dinner at 7PM will be pot luck.

Do you want to advertise your goods and services to everyone on the Key Peninsula? Do you want to reach 4100 homes at a very low rate per thousand? If so, your ad should be appearing in the Newsletter, which is published the first of every month and distributed free by mail throughout the Peninsula Area. To place your ad, you are invited to call Eleanor or Henry Stock at 884-3739, or you may call the Newsletter at 884-3606 to leave a message for them.

SQUARE DANCE NEWS

The Skirts-N-Flirts Square Dance Club has closed it's lessons on Monday evenings both for square dancers and round dancers.

On October 10, Bryon and Ruth Ray hosted the monthly business meeting and potluck at their Lake of the Woods home.

The club would like to invite all square dancers to their November 20, "Turkey Trot" where a turkey will be given as a door prize. The workshop starts at 8:00 PM at the Civic Center, with the dance from 8:30-11:30 PM. John and Kay Beck will be the callers.

A canoe glided quietly along the Western shore of Pitt Pass. The tide was high, and tree covered high bank shaded the water and half-fallen Alders that extend over it. Curious to see the falling water that they could hear, the canoe was beached by the two girls who occupied it and left upright in a tiny stream that entered tidewater there.

A natural little fern filled park separated tideline and the bank. Walking toward the falling water, the girls exclaimed at the extreme size of a few clumps of fern that grew along the stream. There were certainly unusual in this area. Like others who had seen them, the girls felt that they had found something rare and precious.

Following the stream shortly became a stiff uphill hike. Noting the evenness of it's tiny cascades, the girls slipped off their tennis shoes and waded barefoot directly in the water. They were surprised that it was so easy to climb the steep hill that way. Part way up the hill the stream ended in a natural spring that bubbled out of the ground into a small pool.

Had the girls known they were being watched as they climbed their "secret Stairway" they would have been surprised and probably scared. The steps in that little stream did not happen by chance. They were manmade as an almost foolproof pack trail to the largest moonshine plant in the area. Footprints in the stream were instantly erased by the flowing water. That was just one of many examples of free enterprise that sprouted during the great depression.

A waterfall tumbling into a lagoon on North Bay was created by a watertight room built directly into a steep canyon. With a few small logs and some natural landscaping it appeared to be perfectly normal. Many hikers had walked past and even directly over that room without noticing anything unusual. It made a pretty waterfall.

One operation was hidden under a manure pile at the end of a big barn. Built on a sidehill, the barn's basement had an outside extension that was not on the tax rolls. Entered through a pair of loose boards, it was a sanctuary of great joy to the owner and a few of his trusted cronies. It was said that the preacher was somewhat puzzled when he was visiting the man's wife once. The strains of "Sweet Adeline" and "My Wild Irish Rose", seemed to be emanating from the steaming manure pile. Perhaps he thought of the Biblical quotation, "The Mind of Man Cannot Conceive of The Wonders I Have Prepared For Him".

TWILITE DANCE CLUB

Twilite Dance Club's November dance will be on the 27th, part of the Thanksgiving weekend. For those with houseguests for the holiday, the dance offers an excellent way to entertain.

Music will be provided by the Roadmasters county western band from 9:30 PM until 1. Hosts for the evening are Don and Rosalie Busz, Steve and Mary Strittmatter, Chet and Dorothy Burmark.

Now that the kitchen remodeling is completed, those fabulous Dance Club burgers will be available again and, of course, there's always free coffee.

For information about membership or guest privileges contact "Mac" McCloskey, Millie Niemann, Kelley Babcock, or any dance club member.

BURLEY FEED STORE MOVES

Bob and Pat Scott, owners of the Burley Feed Store, are inviting their old customers and new friends to visit them at their new location in Key Center, above K.C. Meats. They are offering a full line of Carnation and Burdic feeds, and a full line of animal health aids. The store also carries fencing and garden supplies.

LAKEBAY CHURCH NEWS

Awana club has started at the Lakebay Church on Wednesday evening and young people from kindergarten through eighth grade are welcome. This will continue each week through the Spring.

These youngsters enjoy a game time and then go into the sanctuary and tell stories relating to the Bible. They have memory verse, time where they compete against other teams in gaining points and winning awards. Its a fun time for all.

A dinner for the senior citizen group will be given on November 13, for all Lakebay, Longbranch area people. Reservations are needed.

All young people will be participating, those from high school are doing the cooking, middle school serving, and younger group doing decorations and entertainment.

Basketball practice is getting organized and they will play in a church league.

There was a Harvest Time Dinner given as a family group on October 24 - enjoyed by all.

Rejoice Singing Group, 25 Strong, presented by Mr. Neel from Peninsula High will be at the Lakebay Church on November 14. Our own local young man, Tom Clark, will be the drummer.

A CLEAR CHOICE

In the race for the District 26 Senate seat this year, your decision is an easy one. Do you want to spend the money you work so hard to earn, or do you want the government to spend it?

Representative Barbara Granlund

- Voted against saving and to spend the $400 million surplus Washington State had in 1979.
- Authored Initiative 435 which will add an income tax.
- Voted against and opposed efforts to force the Federal Government to balance its budget and not go deeper in debt every year.

Senator Art Gallagher

- Voted with fiscal restraint not to spend the $400 million surplus Washington State had in 1979.
- Opposes Initiative 435 and consistently votes against higher taxes.
- Voted for and supported efforts to force the Federal Government to balance its budget and not go deeper in debt every year.

Face the facts and the choice is clear. A spender or a saver. A senator who believes you should spend your hard earned dollars or a senator who believes the government should spend them. If you're tired of too much government, re-elect Senator Art Gallagher.

Senator Art Gallagher

*Paid for by Art Gallagher Election Committee.

the office by the 15th of the month if it is to be printed in the next issue of the paper. More volunteers are needed to work as back up when other workers are not able to serve on the paper. The Board was asked to give recognition to those people who do work on the paper. Keith submitted a set of guidelines for the NEWSLETTER which set forth the basic wishes of the Board. It was moved, seconded, and carried to accept the new guidelines and delete the old ones. A liaison officer will be appointed by the Board to be the official contact between the paper and the Board. This liaison officer will also have a seat on the Executive Board.

It was moved, seconded, and carried to authorize the NEWSLETTER staff in conjunction with the Executive Committee to purchase a new typewriter for the paper if needed.

It was moved, seconded, and carried for the NEWSLETTER treasurer, Jackie Higbee to purchase materials for a new, more complete bookkeeping system.

The Winter Arts and Crafts Fair will be held on December 4. Marian Wagner is chairing this event, and tables are available at $10 each. State sales tax must be paid this year on all items sold and Marian has the necessary forms to fill out.

The 50's Dance, held on October 9, was a great success. A profit of a little over $300 was made for a similar event in the spring.

Alice Palmer, who is in charge of the Nominating Committee, is contacting people to serve as representatives on the Board.

The Board was saddened to hear of the passing of our past treasurer Sue Schadduck. A card was signed by the Board members, and it was moved, seconded, and carried to make a donation to the Heart Fund in her name.

Discussion was held on having a buffet-style dinner at the New Year's Dance. It was suggested this could be the yearly project for one of the organizations using the Center. It will be decided at the November Board meeting so that final preparations can be made.

Recent problems have developed with the gym floor, and we have been advised it needs to be refinished again, possibly this summer.

It was suggested having someone build a trophy case in the Gold Room to keep awards, etc. in of the various organizations. This was tabled until the November meeting.

The Board was informed the Community Action Agency is using several freezers and refrigerators for their organization. These are costly to operate because they are old and do not have lids that fit properly, and they are overloading the circuits. Since this agency does not pay rent, something needs to be done to remedy this situation. They are still selling clothing, which the Board has informed them not to do. A delegation from the Board will check into this.

The Square Dance Club representative inquired about next year's rental fees. We cannot definitely decide until after the agreement with the Park Board is settled.

There was some discussion on the proposed Management Agreement drawn up by the Park Board. Tom and Mike will meet with two members of the Park Board for another meeting on this on October 18. The Regular Board will have a Special Meeting to discuss the outcome of this meeting with the Park Board on Thursday, October 21, at 7:30 PM.

The meeting adjourned at 10:20 P

Respectfully submitted,

DANCERCISE

Dancercise your way to fitness.....That's the theme as Vicki Henschel leads a group of local people through their paces as they do the floor exercises, stretches and aerobic dance routines three times a week at the Vaughn Civic Center. Her classes start every six weeks and are held on Monday evenings, Thursday evenings, and Saturday mornings. Classes stress a warm-up period, vigorous dance, which enhances the circulatory system followed by a cool-down activity. Each person is helped to become involved at their own pace. Dancing is a fun way of shaping up with a pleasurable experience.

Six week sessions are $25 for twice a week classes and $30 for three hour-long dance sessions a week. Vicki, who grew up in Michigan, has taught dancing and modeling for many years and has been teaching Key Peninsula classes for four years. Vicki's phone number is 884-3642.

KARATE AND DANCING FOR JOY

Joy Ozier, dance and pre-school teacher, is offering beginning, intermediate and advanced instruction in tap, ballet, acrobatic and modern jazz dance for young people. Classes are held after school hours and many of her students get off the school bus at the Glen Cove Road studio. Dance classes are $12 per month.

Mrs. Ozier, a native of New Orleans, also conducts a pre-school program on Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:30 AM - 12 noon for 3-5 year olds with emphases on dancing. The children also are involved with reading readiness, and arts, and crafts, with an occasional ecological field trip. They are a part of the annual dance review and may enter the Junior Daffodil Parade in the Spring. In January, she plans to add rollerskating to her pre-school program. The cost is $25 per month. Joy's phone number is 884-3241.

In the same building, which is .3 of a mile down the Glen Cove Road from Key Center, Pat Williamson teaches karate. "I use an Americanized system which incorporates the best of all techniques," he stated. "Men, women, and children all benefit from the muscle conditioning provided by the class work, and it often imparts an improved self-image, with a positive change in character and personality as one becomes more adapt." Mr. Williamson starts a new class every three months; this is important because all participants progress together rather than bringing in beginners at any time. One-hour classes on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday are $30 per month.

Watch the Newsletter for the announcement of Pat's free self-defense classes for women to start in December. Pat's phone number is 884-2042. The Academy of Dance and Karate Studio will have their grand opening from 1 PM - 3 PM on November 20 with demonstrations by both teachers and their students.

PASSES BAR EXAM

Landon M. Gibson III, son of Verba Ingersoll, (Postmaster at Vaughn), and Robert Ingersoll, recently passed the Washington State Bar examination. Mr. Gibson, a 1982 graduate of University of Puget Sound Law School, will join the Tacoma Law Firm of Twell, Anderson and Fisher as an associate.

Mr. Gibson graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Washington in 1979 with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, as well as being inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the National Honor Society. He attended UPS on an academic scholarship, joined the Law Review, and graduated Cum Laude. Mr. Gibson presently resides in Gig Harbor.

PARENT - CHILD PROGRAM UNDERWAY ON KEY PENINSULA

A cooperative nursery school for 3-5 year olds is now available at the Longbranch Improvement Center on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:30 AM. to 11:30 AM. A possible addition will be the start of 1 1/2 hour class for two year olds once a week, with the parent accompanying. The school which is geared to serve both parents and children, is administered by parents who hold offices, work on committees and assist the teacher with classes two or three days a month. "Nursery school experience helps promote growth in social, physical, intellectual and emotional skills which may aid in preventing more serious behavioral or learning problems later on", Mrs. Beech, the teacher explained.

The school is part of the Child Services Program of the Tacoma-Pierce County Council of Cooperative Nursery Schools, under the auspices of Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department. It is also operated in cooperation with the Home and Family Life Department of the Bates Vocational and Technical Institute.

The Child Services Program, established in 1974, provides a number of services to families enrolled. Parents and teachers meet once a month in the evening to discuss child development and hear guest speakers on related topics. Counseling and consultation services are available to help participants cope more effectively with their child's needs and related family problems. A Community Health Nurse sees the children regularly for hearing, vision, and speech screening as well as other aspects of preventive care.

Classes run from October to April. Interested parents are invited to visit the school in session on Monday or Wednesday 9:30 to 11:30 AM. The registration fee is $15.00 plus a monthly cost of $18.00. The teacher, Mrs. Sheryl Beech, may be called at 884-4348 and her assistant Joann Randall, at 884-4689.

KEY PENINSULA HEALTH CENTER PROVIDES MANY SERVICES

Are you in need of physical therapy, mental health counseling, weight control or speech therapy? What about home health care or counseling for alcohol or drug abuse? Maybe you are an expecting parent and would like to attend birthing and parenting classes.

All of these services and more are available to you at the Key Peninsula Health Center. For instance: Physical Therapy is offered once a week or according to need weekly. Individual and family mental health counseling is available as well as older adult counseling. There is a well-child clinic every Tuesday which includes developmental testing, vaccinations for infants to teenagers. Weight control classes are scheduled regularly. Lamaze classes including exercises and breathing control in preparation for child birth are offered twice a year; Home Health care plans are being made to handle chronic home care problems.

If you are interested in any of the above services, call the Health Center for more specifics. If there is a service that you feel would benefit the community and is not being offered, let them hear from you. The Health Center wants your input.

GIFT SUGGESTION

Veterinary Hospital Changes Hands

The Key Peninsula now has its own full service Veterinary Hospital.

Dr. Marc Cohen purchased what was formerly the Minter Veterinary Clinic from Drs. Lawson and Teaple of Purdy. Dr. Cohen has transformed the clinic into a full service veterinary hospital. The hospital will provide medical and surgical facilities for area pet owners.

For horses and farm animals a mobile veterinary unit is available to provide service directly to your farm. Farm animals may also be trailered to the hospital for treatment.

An open house is planned for sometime in early November.

Dr. Cohen, who previously practiced in King Ferry, N.Y., and McMinnville, Oregon, is a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, American Association of Equine Practitioners, and the American Association of Bovine Practitioners.

The Minter Veterinary hospital is open Monday thru Friday 9-5. Saturdays are by appointment only. Appointments are always preferred. The phone number is 857-6158; Emergencies; 857-6158.

VOTE
JOHN

LET'S NOT TURN BACK. . .

In recent years we have experienced the largest increase in spending that our State has ever seen. Those spending policies helped create our State's current budget problems.

John Shaffer represents the future NOT the past.

He wants uncompromising excellence in our public school system. . .

He wants local control for our schools and the very best service for our tax dollar.

John Shaffer wants to maintain vital Government Services, but NOT the duplication and spending sprees of the past.

ON NOVEMBER 2nd DON'T TURN BACK VOTE FOR

JOHN SHAFFER

STATE REPRESENTATIVE, POS. 1, 26th DIST. - REP.

Paid for by John Shaffer Election Committee, Charlotte Haugland, Chairman.

Obituaries

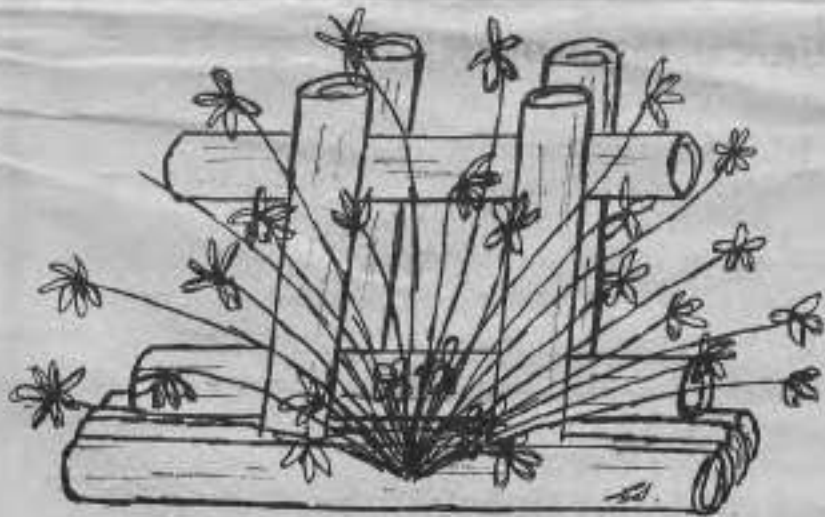

FRANCES (SUE) SHATTUCK

Frances (Sue) Shattuck died suddenly of a heart attack on October 1, at the age of 61. She had just sold her home in Lake Minterwood and moved to Burien in July. She was the Treasurer of the Civic Center from 1-1-81 to 1-1-82. She had worked at Rocky Bay Health Care Facility as a cook for approximately three years. She was well known in the community for her generosity in making and donating (especially hors d'oeuvres) to various Civic Center functions. She is survived by five sons and one daughter. Memorials may be made to the American Heart Fund or the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Fund.

FRIENDS OF THE KEY CENTER LIBRARY

The Friends of the Key Peninsula Library will present Mr. Ken Batker from the Tahona Audobon Society. He will speak on "Birds of the Northwest"; November 3, Wednesday - at 8 PM in the meeting room at the library. There will be no charge.

CRAFTS TO MAKE

AUTUMN FENCE

MATERIALS: 10 Cinnamon sticks 3" long
Strawflowers (miniature)
Tacky glue

Assemble four of the cinnamon sticks horizontally and glue together with tacky glue forming a raft. Place another stick (horizontally) on top of the raft in the center and glue. Two more sticks are placed vertically on the raft in front of the fifth horizontal stick and glue. Two more sticks are vertically placed in back of the fifth stick and glued. The last stick is placed horizontally about an inch above the fifth horizontal stick and in between the vertical sticks. The straw flowers are arranged in a fan and glued to the front of the fence. A miniature animal may be placed on the fence if so desired.

LONGBRANCH SALMON DERBY

On November 6, the Longbranch Improvement Club will sponsor a Salmon Derby. The fishing starts at the break of dawn and lasts until 3 PM. Cash and merchandise prizes will be awarded at 3:45 PM at the Longbranch Improvement Hall. The prizes to be given will be: 1st Prize $150.00; 2nd Prize $75.00; 3rd Prize $50.00; 4th Prize $25.00. There will also be cash prizes of $15.00 for largest fish caught by a child and $25.00 for largest scrap fish.

Tickets are available from local merchants or call Joe Mercado at 884-3550 for more information.

INDIAN SUMMER?

Who first named beautiful Fall weather Indian Summer? From what we can find, it first came from a cartoon, drawn by John McCutcheon, for the Chicago Tribune, on September 30, 1903. The Tribune reruns that cartoon almost every year, showing ghostly indians among shocks of corn in a late-September field.

COOTIETE NEWS

Twelve members of Penn Ants #609 Cootiette Club traveled to Ellensburg to attend the State Convention. Those making the trip were: Alice Palmer, Marie Schwenka, Nat Knox, Corkie Harriman, Tag Harrison, Judy Wilson, Coretta Van Antwerp, Arvella Davis, Hazel Fenton, Thelma Cadle, Irene McVickers and Irma Kelly. Jackie Erickson joined the group in Ellensburg. The Penn Ants received several national awards for their work in hospital and community affairs. As usual at these twice a year get togethers a good time was had by all.

Visits to the Cottesmore Nursing home and Rocky Bay Facility were made on October 14, by Irene McVickers, Marie Schwenka, Judy Wilson, Alice Palmer and Nat Knox. Fruit and cookies were taken to the patients.

The annual Halloween party, a fun time for Penn Ants and other Cootiette Clubs, will take place on October 21. Lets see lots of spooks around the Civic Center.

Visits to the nursing homes in November will be made on the 11th, and to the Naval Hospital on the 23rd. Please try to go. Meet at Walts at 11:30 AM

The next meeting of the Penn Ants will be at 7:30 PM, Thursday the 19th, in the Green Room of the Vaughn Civic Center.

We're behind DAN DAWSON

RUTH BOGUE

Mayor, City of Gig Harbor

"Dan is a tireless, effective representative. I appreciate his efforts on behalf of our community. He has my vote and I hope your's too."

HARRY LYMAN

Kitsap businessman

"Kitsap voters have been well served by Rep. Dan Dawson. Whatever our problems he has been there to help. We need Dan in Olympia working for all of us."

BOB SCHOTTLAND

Past Chairman, Key Center Park & Recreation District

"Dan has been a friend to us on the Key Peninsula. His work to improve our park and recreation program is only one example."

RONALD E. THOMPSON

Tacoma

"Dan Dawson is sensitive to the needs of Tacoma and its people. His record demonstrates strong support for revitalization of our city. . . Pantages Theatre. . . Tacoma Spur. . . Port of Tacoma. . . Schools. . . and the Business Community."

We're Parents. . . Senior Citizens. . . Students. . .
 . . . Business Women. . . Business Men. . . Clerks
 . . . Carpenters. . . Electricians. . . Professional Technicians. . . Fishermen. . . Lawyers. . . Doctors
 . . . Farmers. . . Loggers. . . Bus Drivers.

DREW WINGARD

Chief, Fire District 5

"Representative Dawson deserves much of the credit for the many improvements in the laws relating to fire service, especially those dealing with arson. He's the best legislator I've seen in my 15 years with the fire service."

DAN PROTECTS OUR TAX DOLLARS

Dan served on the Appropriations Committee and helped cut nearly $2 billion in unnecessary spending. That is money the citizens don't have to pay in taxes.

DAN UNDERSTANDS OUR COMMUNITIES

Dan is a past-president of the Gig harbor Lions Club, the Peninsula heimsmen, and a past board member of the local athletic association, examples of his concern for a better life for us all.

DAN GETS THINGS DONE

Dan has seen over 20 of his sponsored bills passed into law. Some are highly technical, others designed to make our own lives better. His senior citizen insurance legislation is a model for the Nation.

DAN IS A LEADER

Dan is a chairman of two major committees. One is joint Senate/House committee. He has served as a chairman since his freshman year — an extra ordinary achievement.

RE-ELECT DAN DAWSON

KP COMMUNITY SERVICES OFFICES OFFER MANY DIFFERENT TYPES OF AID TO LOCAL RESIDENTS

The newly-formed Key Peninsula Community Services office has been combined with Vaughn Pierce County Community Action office. Community Service is a non-profit corporation furnishing donated food to unemployed, low income, and elderly. Volunteers aid in sorting and distribution of food and clothing.

Community Services operates a thrift shop at Vaughn which stocks good used clothing, small appliances, and household items. More clean, warm clothing is needed as well as small working utilities such as toasters, heaters, T.V.'s, radios, etc. Refrigerators, freezers, etc. are also needed. Cash donations will also be needed for food and operation all winter. All donations are tax deductible.

Cheese, butter, and dry milk are being distributed one day per month. A distribution was made on October 27 at the Key Center Fire Station, and future distributions will be made at the Fire Station between 10 AM and 6 PM on November 29 and December 29. Only those living on Key Peninsula are eligible for food from this distribution point. Identification showing Zip Code is required. There will be no Government surplus food available at the Vaughn office, however there are donated non-surplus foods available at Vaughn on an available basis at other times and subject to appointment.

P.C. Community Action will furnish free installation of heat-saving materials for unemployed, low-income, and elderly. The purposes of these U.S. Department of Energy programs is to conserve energy which avoids building new generating plants.

Funds to carry out the programs have been provided by the Windfall Profits Tax on large oil producers. At the same time, the programs aid home owners and tenant renters to lower their heat bills, eliminate cost of material and labor, and increase comfort. To determine whether you are eligible, call the Community Action Services office at Vaughn 10 AM to 2 PM weekdays, 884-4440.

Under the Community Action Program, if you are threatened with shut off or have an overdue heating bill, this program may be of help. You might be eligible for heating assistance whatever your type of heat.

If you have any type of real problem, contact the Vaughn office for reference or opinions.

K.P. Community Action/Community Services office at Vaughn is open from 10 AM to 2 PM on weekdays. Call for appointments to 884-4440.
