

49 West 55th St,
New York
Jan 12. 36

Dear Stan -

If you want to let me have the Terminal Bond for $410<sup>00</sup> I will take it; if you want to keep it yourself at that price do so and send me the ~~half~~ with the other check when you had better send to this address registered mail.

I've been kicking myself for not having taken that tip on Douglas aircraft, it has gone to 55 and I might have made a nice little sum in one month. I have acted on another tip from the same source and bought 20 shares of Westvaco Chlorine @  $26\frac{3}{4}$  and 20 shares American Rolling Mills @  $32\frac{3}{8}$ .

I returned from Boston the night of Monday 6th having spent four days there, (mostly in Ingham). Rudy Zinsser came out one day motored me to town took me to the Gardner Museum then to her house for lunch and then on to my next appointment. She came to the opening of my show with several friends. I was amused by the way she rushed me in her very frigid manner. There was no time to get to Foxboro. tho I did have dinner the other night with Art Lawson at which meal we consumed one of Aunt Florries plum puddings.

I think that the account charged be divided as per or it is possible.
If the property cannot be sold can we not divide some others to pay it.

It was well that Mammie didn't drive up as the weather was not pleasant. Still no definite plans about London or when I will be in Wilmington again. The other projects are slowly taking form.

Dr. Wallace is still with me and liking it. I haven't done any drawing at all and suspect that I've forgotten how.

Yours

Scho