

SWEARING IN CEREMONY

City Council Chambers
January 9, 1996

Rick Rosenblatt, City Clerk, welcomed everyone to the first Council meeting of 1996, as well as the first meeting for our Mayor and re-elected City Council Members.

Mr. Rosenblatt began the Swearing-In Ceremony by calling on Pastor E. S. Brazill, Shiloh Baptist Church, for the invocation.

Mr. Rosenblatt then called on the Honorable Gary Sullivan, Municipal Court Judge, to swear-in Council Member Bill Baarsma.

Mr. Rosenblatt then called on the Honorable Sergio Armijo, Superior Court Judge, to swear-in Council Member Sharon M. McGavick.

Mr. Rosenblatt then called on the Honorable Gary Sullivan, Municipal Court Judge, to swear-in Council Member Paul E. Miller.

Mr. Rosenblatt then called on the Honorable Frank Burgess, U. S. District Court Judge, to swear-in Council Member Dolores Silas.

Mr. Rosenblatt then called on the Honorable Charles W. Johnson, Washington State Supreme Court Justice, to swear-in Mayor Ebersole.

Mr. Rosenblatt then thanked the judges and Pastor Brazill for their participation.

Mayor Ebersole thanked Justice Charles Johnson and Pastor E. S. Brazill for their inspirational words. He continued by thanking his wife, Lillian, for her faithful support and acknowledged the presence of his brother, Jim, and sister-in-law, Sandra, who flew in from Atlanta for tonight's ceremony. He acknowledged Mayor Moss' and Police Chief Ray Fjetland's years of service. Mayor Ebersole continued by acknowledging the citizens of Tacoma and asked for their help, understanding, encouragement, and commitment. Mayor Ebersole then spoke about the vision of Tacoma as the most livable city in the nation.

Council Member Baarsma extended his appreciation to Judge Gary Sullivan for swearing him in. He expressed his thanks to members of his family, particularly his mother, his son and his daughter. He thanked the people who helped him with his campaign. He then stated that he looked forward to working with Mayor Ebersole and the rest of the Council for the next four years.

Council Member Silas thanked Justice Frank Burgess for swearing her in. She stated that her greatest supporter was her mother, Mrs. J. H. Wilson. She indicated that her commitment to the citizens of Tacoma is that we can do it right, we can do it together. She encouraged citizens for their input, advice, and guidance.

Council Member Miller thanked Judge Gary Sullivan for swearing him in. He thanked the citizens for their support. He then thanked his mother, his sisters, his wife Gloria, and his daughter Michelle. He stated that there are two things to remember, that it is not the goal, but the journey which is the important part in moving towards a livable city. Secondly, Council Member Miller stated that the City Council Members are but nine voices out of 180,000 citizens in this city and encouraged all citizens to help and pitch in for the long journey.

Council Member McGavick stated what a humbling experience an election was. She thanked Judge Sergio Armijo for swearing her in. Council Member McGavick then thanked everyone for their support and help through her election and stated you do not do it alone. She then stated that the City of Tacoma has a great City Manager and staff working for them. She stated that her commitment is her time and energy in helping the City of Tacoma be a better place to live and work.

Mayor Ebersole acknowledged the rest of the City Council Members: De Forrest, Evans, Kirby, and Crowley.

Council Member De Forrest moved to recess for 10 minutes. Seconded by Council Member McGavick.

City Manager Ray E. Corpuz, Jr. introduced Pat Yamashita, as the Special Assistant who will be serving in the City Manager's Office for the next three months. Mr. Corpuz stated that Pat Yamashita works for the Utility Services Engineering Division of Public Works.

Mr. Corpuz stated that the Human Rights Department will present its Eighth Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration, on Monday, January 15, 1996. He then stated the theme this year is "Never Give Up the Dream," and the ceremony starts at 11 a.m. Mr. Corpuz indicated there is free parking and admission to the public and asked the public to consider donating nonperishable food or donations. He encouraged everyone to attend.

COMMENTS AND COMMITTEE REPORTS OF CITY COUNCIL:

Council Member Evans asked for some general information, whether or not the City of Tacoma can be held harmless in the event of any future environmental problems regarding the LRI Landfill. He asked if we had means of recovery from the County, should that occur. He continued by asking what our liabilities are and what are protections are in general.

Council Member Kirby commented on how well Mayor Ebersole did tonight at his first City Council meeting. Council Member Kirby requested information regarding the situation with the Police Department and Ms. Phyllis Barrett. He then requested a presentation be made by the Public Works Department to the City Council regarding traffic circles. He would like included in that presentation what the traffic circles do, what are the limitations, and how can we implement traffic circles as a regular part of the Public Works Department. Council Member Kirby requested that City staff explore prohibition against shadow ownership of buildings in the City of Tacoma. He then requested more details of the Planning and Development Services reorganization and what the domino affect would be. Council Member Kirby expressed his appreciation regarding the changes to Channel 6 by writing a letter to TCI Cable Company. Council Member Kirby requested staff to look into an internship program for the City Council.

Mayor Ebersole thanked Council Member Kirby for his kind words of support.

Deputy Mayor Evans concurred with Council Member Kirby regarding traffic devices and traffic circles and stated that a presentation would be appreciated.

Council Member Miller echoed Council Member Kirby's comments on a well run meeting tonight, including the Swearing-In Ceremony. He complimented City Manager Ray E. Corpuz, Jr. regarding the Annual Report. Council Member Miller asked staff for a response regarding the Home Occupancy Permit and what the financial implications would be in making the Home Occupancy Permit a one-time fee and allow businesses to pay their Business and Occupation tax from that point forward. Council Member Miller commented on the editorial in the Lakewood Journal regarding the City of Tacoma.

Deputy Mayor Silas thanked the Public Works Department for the directional signal at the corner of Center and Pine Streets. Deputy Mayor Silas requested a meeting with the Native Americans regarding the Smoke Shop in Northeast Tacoma and asked staff to coordinate that. She then thanked Nancy Forester, from the City Manager's Office, for coordinating the Swearing-In Ceremony. She also congratulated Mayor Ebersole on a well run meeting tonight.

Council Member Crowley stated that the Swearing-In Ceremony was very good tonight. He also indicated that he watched the Swearing-In Ceremony of Mayor Brown, in San Francisco, on Cable TV.

Council Member McGavick congratulated Mayor Ebersole on a good job tonight. She thanked Nancy Forester, City Manager's Office, for coordinating the Swearing-In Ceremony. Council Member McGavick responded to Council Member Kirby's request regarding an intern program for the City Council.

Council Member De Forrest requested that the City Manager bring forth the Sidewalk Ordinance he wants to repeal on the January 16 Agenda. He indicated the Senate Bill will have its public hearing that same day, and felt it would be timely for the City Council to consider our Sidewalk Ordinance. Council Member De Forrest thanked Council Member Bob Evans for an excellent job as Deputy Mayor. Council Member De Forrest stated he was looking forward to discussing the Fire Works Ordinance. He indicated that many fire works in his neighborhood were set off on New Years Eve. He continued by wishing everyone a happy new year.

Council Member Baarsma requested staff to look into the way in which Federal Way functions with standing committees. He stated he would like to know more about the listings of the committees, how they are charged, how they function and operate, and the relationship between the standing committees and the Council. Council Member Baarsma stated he was looking forward to new ways the Council could set policies for a $1.3 billion biennial budget.

Mayor Ebersole concurred with Council Member Baarsma's need to find ways this legislative body could be the policy making body of the City. He encouraged exploring other models such as King County, Pierce County, and the Seattle City Council. Mayor Ebersole stated that he has enjoyed his first week on the job. He then stated that the City of Tacoma has a very talented City Council and staff.

On proper motion, the meeting was adjourned at 8:35 p.m.
